DIPLOMACY, DAMN IT!

by David Hunt

If fate hadn't singled me out to edit the NEWS ADVERTISER, I think I would have liked to be Napoleon, or perhaps Mussolini - the pugnacious Italian statesman I've occasionally, and unkindly, been said to resemble. It's not just that I have a weakness for figures of a personal flair and drama or that I admire ostentatious trappings of dictatorship, although I do - but that I would enjoy being able to carve up a continent like Europe.

Presumably because of this, my wife bought me for Christmas - among the usual other things, like underwear - an adult game called Diplomacy, which apparently puts each player in the position of a pre-1914 European power. That part of it, at least, I find relatively simple. Making and breaking treaties, dispatching enormous armies and supportive fleets across and around Europe, negotiating deals with neighbouring powers - and then reneging - presents no problem.

This must be because of a childhood misspent in the streets of North London, where honour was replaced by strength, ability, supplanted by cunning. In fact, my brother has suggested a more suitable game for me would be called 'Rudeness'.

What has stumped me, quite simply, is how you actually play the bloody game, the mechanics of it. Ludo I could understand, Snakes and Ladders was never entirely beyond me - even chess was something I could comprehend the rudiments of. But Diplomacy - that's something else. Even the rule book, if there can be such a thing for such a game, is enough to send me into paroxysms of temper - frustration and language that would unman all the decorations at Court. It reads for the most part like a madly jumbled page from an Albanian telephone directory and has led already to one verbal battle with a colleague about ~~relative~~ complexity of the game it describes, and chess.

It will also help, unless I can find out ~~how~~ to play the game, to a ~~rate~~ with myself - who she tells me, ~~put~~ a bit of thought into it's selection. ~~but~~ I ~~had~~ thought ~~but~~ ~~she~~ ~~is~~ ~~no~~ ~~master~~ ~~for~~ ~~her~~ ~~to~~ ~~understand~~ ~~than~~ ~~for~~ ~~me~~ ~~to~~ ~~play~~ ~~it~~ ~~at~~ ~~all~~ ~~and~~ ~~she~~ ~~is~~ ~~no~~ ~~master~~ ~~for~~ ~~her~~ ~~to~~ Richard Hull asked if I'd be interested in writing a column. Likely after reading "Jokes for the Junkpile". No, I do it to get you off your rears and contribute to the zine! How about it guys, some anti Canuck jokes around?

DIPLOMACY NEWS

1. VARIANTS! New Variants seem to be popping up at an unbelievable rate, so I hereby take the opportunity to inform you of some. In the last issue of TANGELO EXPRESS, was the rules and map (total 7 pages) of 1776, and American Independence variant. You can get it from Richard Hull (address pg. 1, no. 7) for 25¢. I've published a few myself recently. In the last issue of THUNDERBIRD, I published the rules and map for the new variant, MIDDLEEAST, ranging from Turkey to India, and Russia to Ethiopia. Copies from me for 15¢. Another new one, soon to appear in THUNDERBIRD, but available now, is AMKD, based on the Hebrew Kingdoms circa 2000 B.C.. It is available from me for 10¢. Also, available from me, is Atlantica, (15¢) and the Youngstown Variant (25¢). Soon to be had, from John Leeder (pg. 1, no. 9) is the map and rules for a variant called "Flintlock" set in Eastern N.A. in the 18th Century, with England, France, and Four Indian powers. Lew Pulsipher (pg. 1, no. 15) in the most recent issue of his zine, BLOOD AND IRON, listed almost all the variants around, where to buy them, and cost of each.
2. Quote: Rod Walker speaking of what Carol Buchanan did: "...unreasonable, awful, brutish, nasty, and..."
3. INTERNATIONAL: Here again on the horns scene. I've started up a new zine, which is going to be INTERNATIONAL, because that it's name! Also, the games will have players from 7 different countries! When I started up this zine, I discovered that there was postal players of Diplomacy in 22 countries around the world...which is sick! And, I still need players from Canada and the US, as well as from overseas... registrants so far have all been European. The game fee is a mere $2.00, and preference lists are required.
4. NUDITY AND PURE OBSCENITY IN DIP RAG: JH Fleming's zine ORPHAN (see address pg. 1, no. 17) is featuring naked women as a regular feature. They are artistically drawn by JH, and carry the title of "ORPHAN's ALLY OF THE MONTH". JH has also opened an all-girl game, so this is a great zine. Adopt an ORPHAN, write JH!
5. FREE GAMES: The publisher of LUXOR, dear Aunt Clio, is opening free postal games. They will be gamesmastered by Herr Doktor Johann Alberic Seltsamliebe, and about the only requirement to play is that you be totally insane. You are encouraged to take on an assumed identity (remain anonymous) for your own safety (it's encouraged by the editor, Aunt Clio). Write LUXOR! (address, pg. 1, no. 14)
6. SURVEY SYNDICATE: Len Lakofka (address, pg. 1, no. 10) has started a syndicate, whose members participate in publishing surveys, the total results being tabulated in it's head office in downtown Chicago, and the results being published in the member zines. Yours truly is a member, so watch out!

7. WEIDMARK WINS, MASSAR LOSES! ((YUK, YUK)): Official tabulations are out, and I am officially the Canadian Regional Secretary for the IDA. James Massar, despite a massive campaign, got one vote, or something like that, in his run for Atlantic secretary. Atta boy Jimmy. The contest for the Canadian region was rather weird though. I now learn, that my honourable opponent, voted for me! And if he hadn't of voted for me, the election would have been tied! What is more, I nominated my honourable opponent! How can you lose when you vote for a guy like me, who can nominate people like that?

9. A SUPER GAME--ARE YOU CRAZY? Burt Labelle in PELLUCIDAR #4 announced the possibility of a super game, with prizes up to $1000.00 for top rank finishers in the game. He suggests about $50 worth of av. prizes for the winner, $100-$25 or so for second, and so on the rest. Not that I know the money...but who wants to play in the MAHOGANIES super game? ~~ME~~ If, I ran such a game, though, I'd take just a bit off of the wins or work harder (but still probably no game winners graduated prizes down, until the last one (first out) gets 7 basic issues of LA GUERRE or something as enjoyable. ((Smut*?)). The fee, would range $8 to $10.00 and, if you could, players could like to play in several of the same month your turn, so you then still have an idea of how many others are the same month. I am not sure if this

10. INVENTION OF ALLEGHENY GOLF & COUNTRY CLUB. - silent. Calhamaer, who invented this or something like it, was the game of Doubles, which was to about 1958, became the 2nd entry in the CHAMPS TOURNAMENT by WORLDS CHAMPS TOURNAMENT. There are six spots left in the game with Mr. Calhamaer, Box 33, Leeper, PA. 16233. STRICT (absolutely no delays no matter what!) deadline is at 2 weeks from now to be considered only entry for

EDINBURGH (the Royal Burgh) is a burgh of baronial government, and is governed by a Provost, Sheriff, and Council, and by a town council, consisting of a Provost, Sheriff, and 12 Councillors, and a Sheriff-substitute.

LONDON(French Government-in-Exile) - Now that you've been so good to me, I'll tell you to hold off on the war bus. I need to get back to the French Government-in-Exile. I'll take my marbles and go home. This will probably be the last official statement from the French Government:

PICKERING: No mistake that the French Government understands the bitterness need and anguish and misery which is able to generate it it's capabilities and the generosity of the French Government.

PHILADELPHIA, ITALY: Francesco Frisola, Provost of the School of Commerce to Bizzoner, da Meyer, Frank L. Rizzo, has made an official protest ((Where, where, I have yet to see an "official protest", all lies, lies, lies, lies)) against the remarks of one Mark Weidmark, a so-called gamesmaster in Muckus, er no, Marcus, who insinuated that the City of Brotherly Love had been eaten by a glob. This is total nonsense. Everybody knows that what's really eating Philadelphia is the teacher's strike. Seven weeks. Gawd.

PICKERING, SWITZERLAND: Muckus! Outrageous insinuations, to imply that respectable MARCUS...oh, terrible, to imply that it was dirty, to imply that it was similar to Smut. OUTRAGEOUS CITY OF Brotherly Love? Bah, it's the city of Brotherly Love! (Your guess is as good as mine as to what that means). Who'd complain about a teacher's strike? That'd be fun!

ROME: Anyons for a swim in the Western Mediterranean, better known as Lake Italia? (Better known to whom, I thought it was Lake Blah)

HUNTINGDON VALLEY, ITALY: Hold it, champ. The last time I went into Philadelphia, my foot kept sticking to all the sidewalks. Now, either's there's a big, big, dog, with a real problem, or maybe the glob did get it....

PICKERING: Even if the blob did eat all of Philadelphia, it wouldn't be noticeable. (Interpret that as I would)

PICKERING: CHIEF Magistrate at the Royal Duchy of Pickering, high in the Jura Alps, recently declared war against Germany and Bushyrow. An ocean vessel loaded to capacity with "Triple-Bubble" gum, was sabatued the other day, by German saboteurs. The ship was bound for Smyrna, and was a very important load. This was because the Turkish people are important buyers from the Bushy market, and it was an experimental batch, flavoured with "Asparagus Whiskey". What is more, an Italian tourist group, who had just arrived at the French Riviera, were adversely affected by the sinking, which occurred in the Gulf of Lyon. When the Italian went to swimming, you can imagine the gear and they had a diving board break. Attacks upon Germany, will begin with a new invention, a rocket. Warheads have not been acquired as of yet, but it is believed that "Quadruple Bubble-Gum" will be used. The gum will be flavoured, if it is used, by a combination of Miller's Highlight Beer, and raw sewage supplied by Harry's Septic Tank Co.

ANNOUNCEMENT TO ALL OUR MEMBERS TO BE ABSOLUTELY SAFE IN THE FUTURE FROM MISSING OUR MEMBERS IN WINTER SEASONS, I ADVISE YOU TO SEND TENTATIVE ADJUSTMENTS (PREDICTING FAIR OUTCOME) WITH FULL ORDERS, FROM NOW ON. WINTER 1903-1911 AND NO CHANGE OF BULLETS.

A change of order, legally within the deadline, has been received and I have accepted the Change, England (Jones) removes the fleet Norway, and army Picard,

1904. SUPPLY COMMISSIONERS
Board of Trade of Canada 312 Parliament Street

Adjustments are due by 12:00 noon, Eastern Time Feb. 22, 1973. Samples will be posted by post card on that date, and the Spring deadline will be set. You are required to send buflids or adjustments immediately. Phone, if necessary is (416) 839-7841 6:30 to 11:00 pm EST. Press follows:

HOME: For some unaccountable reason, communications between the eastern empire (Austria-Hungary) have broken down. Mobilization of units from Venice was necessary because of no declaration of intent by the east.

NAPLES: May the Russians crumble on all fronts. Long live the Swine!!!

SWITZERLAND: Thanx, but no thanx, quick die the wops!

HUNTINGTON VALLEY, AUSTRIA: Well, gang, if we're going to invade Russia, let's get about it! I mean, Hitler waited a few months too long and look what happened to him. But then that hasn't happened yet. Only Napoleon invaded, see? ~~and he got defeated~~, but then he was defeated and we all know what that means. ~~He got it~~

DELHI (Nov. 5, 1904).—Maharajah Jahan Khan XXX appeals to Europe for modern armaments with which to fight the Italians. His most high excellency also appealed to King Edward VII of England to fulfill the terms of the Commonwealth defence treaties and rid the seas of Italian fleets. Jahan said, "Does Britannia rule the waves?"

LUCKNOW (Dec 1, 1904): The market has crashed on hemp products pending the Italian invasion of Pradesh-Sarileeg Mai, one of the principal growers says, "An ospain in will tie. I have great fear. We burn hemp fields when turpans come, then they treat away to Himalaya. Vishnu toks."

DANZIG: Chancellor Dietrick Kruger announced that Germany had invaded Livonia and established a beach head. He also stated that when Livonia was fully liberated that the Baltic states of Latvia, Lithuania, and Estonia would be granted independence and become equivalent of the Scandinavians.

BAVARIAN ALPS: All was quiet in this region except for the sounds of skiers, getting ready to participate in an international skiing competition to be held here soon. Below the border there was very little action also.

CONSTANTINOPLE (German Embassy). In view of a threat which is expected by both German and Turkish officials in this province, the German staff and their families have been moved to Ankara.

ANKARA (Marcus News Service): The 7th Russian Fleet arrived in Ankara for a time of shore leave and relaxation. Mysteriously, an arson has burned down the city court, and all the laws are burned, except one, which was saved by a daring Russian sailor. That law being, the right of anyone to burn witches and warlocks.

ANKARA(Marcus News Service): The mysterious arson has struck again, but this time he is burning German embassy officials and their families.

PEKING(German Embassy): Reports received from the Chinese government of the battle of Siberia have been conveyed to the Chancellor in Berlin. If and when the German army gets there, it is highly unlikely it will arrive in time to save the Chinese. The German Government has promised it will try to liberate the Chinese if they are totally overwhelmed. ((You pick the greatest places for embassies! Even the places you move to don't last long!))
